WEDNESDAY MARCH 29 1876

OUR CANDIDATE.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

HON. JAMES G. BLAINE.

[illegible]

Republican National Convention.

1876

The next National Republican National Convention [illegible] CITY OF CINCINNATI on WEDNESDAY, THE FOURTEENTH DAY OF JUNE [illegible]

[illegible]

THE OUTLOOK.

[illegible]

DEMOCRATIC PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES.

[illegible]

So too with ex Gov Hendricks. Unless Gen McGinnis of the Cincinnati Gazette is far astray certain financial transactions of this pet of the Indiana Democracy are hardly less culpable than those which have consigned Pendleton to ignominy. Gen McGinnis claims Mr Hendricks to bring him to the test of proof in a court of law. Will he venture to respond? Were we permitted to offer a suggestion to the Democratic managers, it would be that another Committee of Investigation should be appointed to overhaul the business records of prominent Democratic candidates in advance of the St. Louis Convention. The list would be a slim one before the inquiry ended.

The Press is pleased to hear a report that Governor Connor will again nominate Mr Burleigh for Land Agent, because he believes him best qualified to attend to the work required in closing the affairs of the office. The Governor seeks to make appointments with an eye single to the public interest, and if he believes, as we think he does, that Mr. Burleigh's retention will be serviceable to the State, and that there is no public reason for his rejection, he will command general approval in again nominating the man he deems best fitted for the place.

The Senate in Executive session Monday considered the nomination of Mr. Dass but adjourned without action.

THE CURRENCY.

[From the New York Tribune.]

While Congress debates and fruitlessly votes about the currency, the laws of trade are gradually settling the vexed question after their own fashion. We have from Controller Knox a statement of currency issued and retired from the date of his last report Nov 1 to March 20 inclusive. During this period of four months and twenty days the additional circulation issued to banks has been [illegible] the amount of legal tenders retired from Nov 1 to March 1, as required by law, was $9,292,832. Hence under the operation of the law of 1875 of which so much complaint is made by the inflationists there has been [illegible]

[illegible]

MARSH'S FRIGHT. [illegible] Belfast Journal or some other special pleader [illegible] to the following paragraph from the paper.

[illegible] testimony of Marsh yesterday before the Clymer Committee, it appears, more distinctly that he is acting in sympathy with Clymer and Blackburn if not under their training and instruction. His statement that he left New York on account of something he read in the TIMES which Mr Bass had said in the House was absolutely ridiculous. There was not a word in THE TIMES of Friday concerning Mr Bass's speech beyond the mere statement of the point of his argument on the question of jurisdiction. Marsh of course had the answer all made up on purpose to get a thrust at the Republican members, and, with the usual dullness of the other side of the committee they had omitted to look over the documents which they referred to. There was not a word said in debate that day that referred to the prosecution of any person."

REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN BRUNSWICK. Last Spring the Democrats in Brunswick, by the adroit use of local controversies, succeeded in electing two of the Selectmen and the Collector. On Monday the Republicans took full charge of affairs again and made a clean sweep. Hon. C. J. Gilman was chosen Moderator, and the following town officers were elected: Clerk, Leonard Townsend; Collector, D. T. Purington; Treasurer, Barton Jordan; Selectmen, Lyman E. Smith, Thos U Eaton, S B Wing; School Committee, John D Lincoln, M D., for three years, Edwin S. Small, for two years; Town Agent, S. E. Wing. All the above are straight Republicans except Mr. Wing, who was reelected on personal grounds. Brunswick Republicans are wide awake again and are bound to give a good report in the Centennial Campaign.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

THE UNHAPPY DEMOCRATS—SAM RANDALL'S SALARY BLUNDERBUSS A BAD KICKER—SOME HISTORICAL DATA—THAT TEN PER CENT TRICK—THE FAMOUS MARSH—BELKNAP'S CASE—THE GREAT STORM—CONNECTICUT—MR BURLEIGH'S KITTERY GRIEVANCE—OUR PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE.

WASHINGTON, March 25 1876.

Happy not by any means, they are not even comfortable, and what is worse they are the authors of their own daily increasing misery. Sam Randall cannot rise from his seat to speak without losing his temper and Holman of Indiana is scarcely more at ease. They have reported their great economical blunderbuss, the salary bill, and are in the situation of the man who drew the elephant. Their record is too much for them. As everybody knows Sam Randall is the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations and he now reports the bill. They have had two days of [illegible] thereon and are [illegible] than they were before they began their [illegible]

[illegible]

THE FAMOUS MARSH. The Marshes have turned from their last trip to foreign parts and have again been called by the Committee. Calo is what Hon Bardwell Sloto would call a C. C. (Cussed Scoundrel), and just the sort of man who would do anything for which money is paid. If he would plan deliberately to corrupt a friend in a high position or even become a party to such corruption for money, why would he not perjure himself in court for a similar consideration?—He receives the execration of all, those who are benefitted, as well as those who are injured by his testimony. He is the laughing-stock of all who read his story and consider his character.

THE IMPEACHMENT OF BELKNAP is announced, semi-officially, for Monday, and the papers have already pretended to foreshadow the line of defense. It is probable that the counsel of Belknap will file a demurrer on the ground that their client having resigned, his office is no longer liable to impeachment, which is the same question originally raised in the House of Representatives. If the Senate decides adversely to the consideration of the case it will then go to the criminal court for trial. It now looks as though the case will not be tried by the Senate.

THE CONNECTICUT CAMPAIGN. Mr Frye has "accepted a call" to Connecticut. He came back from New Hampshire chock full of campaign ammunition, which he will doubtless fire off with good effect at the Democratic foil in the land of "basswood hams." We are hearing hopeful accounts from that State. The Connecticut Democrats are pretty irritable, which indicates that at least they are not wholly assured.

MR. BURLEIGH'S COMPLAINT. It is said that the recent reports of the action of the Committee to investigate the Kittery Navy Yard are, untrue. If they [illegible]

[illegible] they have certainly the appearance of truth as they indicate the same strategy that was attempted at the time of the last election of Senator Hamlin, with which all are familiar. It is said that the report will not be made for about two months which statement coupled as it is with the insinuation that its effect will be to damage Senator Hamlin in some way is rather thin. If there is any truth in the report there goes with it no evidence to preclude the possibility of a further investigation on the part of the Senate. No one fears that they will develop anything to the injury of Senator Hamlin, even by an ex parte examination with only one side represented as is the case with two Democrats on the Committee aided by Mr Burleigh who is a declared enemy of Mr Hamlin. Mr Burleigh has always had a great deal of trouble about his management of that part of his district. [illegible]

PORTLAND, March 28. A lad of nine[teen] William Quinn, while playing [on] the tracks of the Grand Trunk [Rail]road this afternoon, was fatally crushed by the [cars] that he died this morning.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

FORTY-FOURTH CONGRESS—First Session.

Senate.

WASHINGTON, March 28

Mr. Sherman called up Senate bill [to] amend the 11th section of the act to [es]tablish the judicial courts of the United [States] approved September 24, 1789. Mr. Thurman discussed the bill, saying that the courts as the law now stands, have power to enforce judgments, which [are] shown by two cases in Louisiana. Mr. [Sher]man was disposed to leave such [cases] as they existed. The power did not [exist] in Congress to pass such a law, it be[longed] to the States, and when you attempt[ed] to exercise such power interference [with] the States, and their officials. Congress [could] not make a law to compel officers to do their duty was a [matter] of discretion and danger.

Mr. Edmunds thought the bill went [too] far in making the Circuit Courts [the] supervising tribunal of the State Courts. [The] bill went over.

Mr. Sherman asked leave to report [back] a bill to correct an error in [the] law relating to the issue of silver [certi]ficates.

Mr. Edmunds objected to the consideration of the bill. The question then recurred on the motion to amend the law relating to [the] issue of silver certificates.

Mr. Sherman explained the bill. It proposed to the Secretary of the Treasury to issue certificates of deposit for silver coin deposited in the Treasury, in sums not less than $10. The object was to relieve the Treasury of the large amount of silver coin now in it, and to put it in circulation. The bill was then taken up. Mr. Sargent explained that in all these amendments the object was only conforming to the [exist]ing laws.

Mr. Sherman and Hamlin urged the [pass]ing of the bill.

Mr. Conkling spoke upon the [bill] opposing it. Pending which at 2 [o'clock] the Senate went into Executive [session] and at 5.30 adjourned.

House.

A message was received from the [Pres]ident announcing the [fact] that the Clerk had found an [en]rolled bill, entitled "An act for the relief of Hallett Kilbourn, to re[fer] the claim of Hallett Kilbourn for [real] estate now forming part of the [grounds] of the Capitol, and for other [pur]poses," and that he had delivered [the] same to the Committee on Public [Buil]dings and Grounds.

Mr. Thompson, Sergeant-at-Arms of the House that the Clerk of the District of Columbia had requested that Hallett Kilbourn be given into his custody, which he refused to do, in the absence of instructions from the House.

Mr. Clovel offered a resolution declaring the Sergeant-at-Arms of the House not to deliver Hallett Kilbourn to the custody of any person or tribunal, unless by order of the House. Adopted.

Mr. Niblack, of Indiana, defended the action of the House in not executing Kilbourn, and [main]tained that the power of Congress was [in] any court.

Mr. Atkins, of Tennessee, from the conference [com]mittee on the bill to supply the deficiency in the Post Office Department, made a report that the House recede from its amendment increasing the appropriation from $1,000,000 to $1,500,000. The report was agreed to.

The House then took up the bill reported from the committee on commerce to amend the law for the regulation of steam vessels. After an explanation of the bill it was made by Mr. Ingersoll, of Texas. The bill went over.

At 3 o'clock the House took a recess until 5.30.

At the evening session the House [took] up the bill on account of the [sufferers] by the Chicago fire.

Pending which, at 7 o'clock, the House adjourned.

Secretary Belknap is confined to his house by illness.

Secretary Fish is still confined to his room by illness.

Ex-Governor Stewart and other gentlemen connected with the Emma Mine, in Nevada, were present. Mr. Schenck read the following paper:

I decline to answer any question which may be put to me by this committee, or any member thereof, touching the matters referred to in the resolution under which you are acting, for the reason that I am informed by my counsel, and believe, that the committee has no power to compel me to testify in relation to the matters referred to in said resolution.

I am prepared to lay before that committee unquestionable proofs that the evidence which has been taken is false, that the witnesses who gave it are infamous in character, and not worthy of credit under oath; that

was fair, honest and straightforward, without fraud or fraud, and made by men who had paid a large sum of money for it, who honestly believed in its value; that my purchase was not made in the faith of any representation by the sellers, but upon the exact accounts of the actual product of the mine for nearly a year next before the sale, and upon a careful survey and examination of it by competent persons employed by the buyers for that purpose; that the mine continued for more than a year after the sale to yield large monthly returns, that the confidence of the sellers in it was such that after their interest had been sold and paid for some of them purchased largely of the stock at high prices, and also loaned the Company large sums of money, that

The Subsequent Failure of the Mine

was owing to mismanagement in its working, that the mine is to-day, if properly worked, in all probability as valuable as it was, or supposed to be; and, finally, that so far as I know or believe, the parties in England who were concerned in the original purchase have never claimed that any fraud or imposition was practiced upon them, that claim having been recently set up by those who have bought the stock since the alleged failure of the mine at a nominal price.

Prepared to Prove the Testimony Against Him False.

I am prepared to lay before that Committee unquestionable proofs that the evidence which has been taken is false, that the witnesses who gave it are infamous in character, and not worthy of credit under oath; that

The Sale of the Mine

was fair, honest and straightforward, without fraud or fraud, and made by men who had paid a large sum of money for it, who honestly believed in its value; that my purchase was not made in the faith of any representation by the sellers, but upon the exact accounts of the actual product of the mine for nearly a year next before the sale, and upon a careful survey and examination of it by competent persons employed by the buyers for that purpose; that the mine continued for more than a year after the sale to yield large monthly returns, that the confidence of the sellers in it was such that after their interest had been sold and paid for some of them purchased largely of the stock at high prices, and also loaned the Company large sums of money, that was owing to mismanagement in its working, that the mine is to-day, if properly worked, in all probability as valuable as it was, or supposed to be; and, finally, that so far as I know or believe, the parties in England who were concerned in the original purchase have never claimed that any fraud or imposition was practiced upon them, that claim having been recently set up by those who have bought the stock since the alleged failure of the mine at a nominal price.

So Believed the Mine Valuable and Bought Stock

The charge is a very grave one and I ask for the most full investigation of it, for that purpose, although not invited to appear before the Committee, I left London as soon as I learned from the news-papers what action had been taken, and came at once to Washington that I might rest in vindication upon the simple statement of my own connection with the transaction in question; which I propose to make, and from which it will appear that under the hopes of the sale of it I bought and paid for the several shares I held now, and established a large pecuniary loss. But as the committee have resolved to examine the history of the mine and intended to show that it was of little value and the sale of it was fraudulent, and this evidence has been widely published, it seems it is suitable to have complete vindication that the Committee should hear testimony upon these points.

Mr. Schenck requests the Employment of able Counsel and a thorough Investigation.

It will be very apparent to the Committee that this proof must involve the interrogation of a considerable number of witnesses, that the evidence cannot be pre-conducted except through the means usually employed in judicial tribunals, the examination of the witnesses by competent counsel acquainted with the case, subject of course, to such further questions as any member of the Committee may wish to put, that to conduct the enquiry by calling upon witnesses to examine themselves or by such desultory and imperfect examination as must be made by a committee not informed of the facts, would be extremely unjust to the party who relies upon the testimony, and would tend to obscure the truth rather than to elicit it. I have, therefore, to respectfully request of the committee that the usual privileges of the assistance of proper counsel may be accorded, as well for the cross-examination of witnesses who have been examined against me, as for the examination of those whom I desire to produce. Should the committee be pleased to accede to my request, as I cannot doubt they will, I will be ready to proceed with the cross-examination of the witnesses, or by my own statement as the committee may think most convenient. I am, gentlemen,

Very respectfully,

ROBERT C. SCHENCK.

Mr. Fackner said Mr. Schenck was mistaken in saying the intention of the committee to invite him to appear before them.

Mr. Swann also remarked that the committee would give Mr. Schenck every opportunity with the aid of counsel Mr. Schenck's cross-examination of such witnesses as the committee may think most desirable.

The Settlement with Park.

Mr. Schenck said he gave to him the $50 000 check referred to yesterday, and $15,000 in addition. There was a credit of $2,500 on the note which he had given to Park, and the note which he had given to him. The $15,000 it was understood Schenck did not understand was in full settlement with Park. It seemed to be a mistake that Schenck had any interest in the Emma Mine and read a letter from Rondell Palmer in reference to it, disproving the statements which had been made against him. As to Lyon, some of whose statements in regard to Schenck's business he did not know that he would not [illegible] The Committee adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, when Mr. Schenck will again appear.

A Washington special says that Gen. It is the general view of the Committee that this is sufficiently strong to convict him of corruption in office. The articles and specifications are in the usual form and particularly set forth the acts on which he is charged.

[illegible] then
[illegible] "I guess he is,"
[illegible] slipped off again.

I've readed my papa to sleep, mamma,
He'll be rested now, I sure he'll be."

CENTAUR LINIMENTS.

White, for the Human Family; Yellow, for Horses and Animals.

These Liniments are simply the wonder of the world. Their effects are little less than marvelous, yet there are some things which they will not do. They will not cure cancer or mend broken bones, but they will always allay pain. They have straightened fingers, cured chronic rheumatism of many years standing, and taken the pain from terrible burns and scalds, which has never been done by any other article.

THE WHITE LINIMENT is for the human family. It will drive Rheumatism, Sciatica and Neuralgia from the system; cure Lumbago, Chilblains, Palsy, Itch, and most Cutaneous Eruptions; it extracts frost from frozen hands and feet, and the poison of BITES AND STINGS of venomous reptiles; it subdues swellings, and alleviates pain of every kind.

For sprains or bruises it is the most potent remedy ever discovered. The Centaur Liniment is used with great efficacy for Sore Throat, Toothache, Caked Breasts, Earache, and Weak Back. The following is but a sample of numerous testimonials:

"INDIANA HOME, Jeff Co., Ind., May 28, 1873.

[illegible] it my duty to inform you that I have suffered much with swollen feet and chords. I have not been free from these swellings in eight years. Now I am perfectly well, thanks to the Centaur Liniment. The Liniment ought to be applied warm.

BENJAMIN BROWN."

The proof is in the trial. It is reliable, it is handy, it is cheap, and every family should have it.

To the sick and bed-ridden, the halt and lame, to the wounded and sore, we say, "Come and be healed."

To the poor and distressed who have spent their money for worthless medicines, a bottle of CENTAUR LINIMENT will be given without charge.

The Yellow Centaur Liniment

Is adapted to the tough muscles, cords and flesh of horses and animals. It has performed more wonderful cures of Spavin, Strain, Wind-galls, Scratches, Sweeney, and general Lameness, than all other remedies in existence. Read what the great Expressmen say of it:

"NEW YORK, January, 1874.

Every owner of horses should give the CENTAUR LINIMENT a trial. We consider it the best article ever used in our stables.

H. MARSH, Supt. Adams Ex. Stables, N. Y.
E. PULTZ, Supt. U. S. Ex. Stables, N. Y.
ALBERT S. OLIN, Supt. Nat. Ex. Stables, N. Y."

"MONTGOMERY, ALA., Aug. 17, 1874.

GENTLEMEN:—I have used over one gross of Centaur Liniment, yellow wrapper, on the mules of my plantation, besides dozens of the family Liniment for my negroes. I want to purchase it at the wholesale price, and I will thank you to ship me by Savannah steamer one gross of each kind. Messrs. A. T. Stewart & Co. will pay the bill on presentation. Respectfully, JAMES DARROW."

The best patrons of this Liniment are Farriers and Veterinary Surgeons. It heals Galls, Wounds and Poll-evil, removes Swellings, and is worth millions of dollars to Farmers, Livery-men, Stock-growers, Sheep-raisers, and those having horses or cattle.

What a Farrier cannot do for $20 the Centaur Liniment will do at a trifling cost.

These Liniments are warranted by the proprietors, and a bottle will be given to any Farrier or Physician who desires to test them. Sold everywhere.

MERRILL'S MILL, BANGOR, Jan. 1, 1867.

TO MY FRIENDS AND PATRONS,

I desire to take this, the first of another year, as an opportunity to thank you for your past liberal patronage, and solicit a continuance of the same. My object in the future as in the past will be to make and sell a better article than the general production in the market. By so doing I may, I hope, to merit your continued favors.

DR. L. CHASE,

Analytical Botanic Physician

Who formerly resided in Bangor, has returned and taken Rooms at

No. 3 Middle Street, and would respectfully say, that he has had great experience in treating of Consumption, diseases. In his eight years' practice, and will guarantee to perform a hundred per cent more cures in Cancers, Humors, Tumors, Dropsy, Gravel, Catarrh, Lung and Liver Diseases, Fits, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Female Complaints, &c., &c., than he could possibly have done eight years ago.

IN CANCERS AND TUMORS

the Doctor claims superiority over all physicians of the age, for he never fails to perform a cure, when taken in a proper stage.

Dr. Chase boldly asserts that he can tell every individual their diseases and location of their pains, and describe their feelings, in almost every case, more minutely than they can possibly themselves. He is also

Moderate in his Charges, that the poor as well as the rich may have the advantage of his skill, and in all cases where he cannot cure or give relief, he will conscientiously refuse to treat them.
